Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of this condensed consolidated interim financial information in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34 Interim Financial Reporting ("IAS 34"). Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this condensed consolidated interim financial information based on our review.

Scope of review

We conducted our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, 'Review of interim financial information performed by the independent auditor of the entity'. A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying condensed consolidated interim financial information is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34 "Interim Financial Reporting."

3 Material accounting policies (continued)

3.3 Non-current assets (or disposal groups) held for sale

Non-current assets (or disposal groups) are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and a sale is considered highly probable. They are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell, except for assets such as deferred tax assets, assets arising from employee benefits, financial assets and investment property that are carried at fair value and groups of contracts within the scope of IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts, which are specifically exempt from this requirement.

An impairment loss is recognised for any initial or subsequent write-down of the asset (or disposal groups) to fair value less costs to sell. A gain is recognised for any subsequent increases in fair value less costs to sell of an asset (or disposal group), but not in excess of any cumulative impairment loss previously recognised. A gain or loss not previously recognised by the date of the sale of the non-current asset (or disposal group) is recognised at the date of derecognition.

Non-current assets (including those that are part of a disposal group) are not depreciated or amortised while they are classified as held for sale. Interest and other expenses attributable to the liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale continue to be recognised.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale and the assets of a disposal group classified as held for sale are presented separately from the other assets in the condensed consolidated interim statement of financial position. The liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale are presented separately from other liabilities in the condensed consolidated interim statement of financial position.

3.4 Derivative financial instruments

A derivative financial instrument is a financial contract between two parties where payments are dependent upon movements in the price of one or more underlying financial instrument, reference rate or index.

The Group enters into a variety of derivative financial instruments to manage its exposure to interest rate risks, including interest rate swap, and forward contracts.

Derivative financial instruments are initially measured at fair value at trade date, and are subsequently re-measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period. All derivatives are carried at their fair values as assets where the fair values are positive and as liabilities where the fair values are negative. Derivative assets and liabilities arising from different transactions are offset only if the transactions are with the same counterparty, a legal right of offset exists and the parties intend to settle the cash flows on a net basis.

Derivative fair values are determined from quoted prices in active markets where available. Where there is no active market for an instrument, fair value is derived from prices for the derivative's components using appropriate pricing or valuation models.

The method of recognising fair value gains and losses depends on whether derivatives are held for trading or are designated as hedging instruments, and if the latter, the nature of the risks being hedged. All gains and losses from changes in the fair value of derivatives held for trading are recognised in the condensed consolidated interim statement of profit or loss under 'Investment income'.

4 Use of judgements and estimates

The preparation of condensed consolidated interim financial information requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

In preparing this condensed consolidated interim financial information, the significant judgments made by management in applying the Group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those that applied to the consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended 31 December 2024 except for fair value of derivatives and provision for impairment of investment in associate.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and in any future periods affected.

5 Asset classified as held for sale

The Group owns shares in Aramex PJSC which are classified and measured at both investments at FVTPL (trading) and FVOCI (strategic) based on the business model.

During the period, the Group has accepted an offer to sell its investment in Aramex PJSC to Q Logistics Holding LLC (a subsidiary of ADQ) for an offer price of AED 3.00 per share. The legal ownership of the shares have not as yet been transferred to Q Logistics Holding LLC as at the reporting date, and settlement is pending finalisation of regulatory, procedural formalities and other conditions.

Due to the existence of conditions precedent to the offer letter, the Group has not derecognized this investment and continues to measure it at its quoted market price as at the reporting date. However, the investment which was measured at FVOCI has been reclassified from non-current assets to assets held for sale and measured at quoted market price as at 30 June 2025.

This transfer is non-cash transaction for the purpose of condensed consolidated interim statement of cash flows.

Subsequently on 22nd of July 2025, the Offeror announced that the offer is unconditional effective on that date, and the transaction was settled on the 25th of July 2025.

Given that there were no significant changes in the inputs used in the December 2024 valuation and there were no major changes in the property market in the UAE since that date, Management believes that the fair value as of 30 June 2025 remains consistent with the value determined in December 2024, except for one investment property for which the Group has reassessed the fair value and recorded a fair value loss of AED 15 million.

Investment properties amounting to AED 209 million (31 December 2024: AED 210 million) are mortgaged against loans and borrowings (note 13) obtained by the Group to finance the construction of the properties.

Additions of AED 17 million (31 December 2024: AED 1 million) pertain to the development of two new real estate projects for rental purposes or capital appreciation.

Consequently, the Parent Company has consolidated the financial results, assets and liabilities of the subsidiaries within the Tax group election for the relevant Tax period, eliminated transactions between Parent and each subsidiary that is member of the Tax Group. Additionally, the Group has elected to account for gains and losses of changes in fair value of investments on a realisation basis along with other adjustments.

Income tax expense is recognised at an amount determined by multiplying the profit before tax for the interim reporting period by Group's best estimate of the weighted-average annual income tax rate expected for the full financial year, adjusted for the tax effect of certain items recognised in full in the interim period. As such, the effective tax rate in the condensed consolidated interim financial information may differ from Group's estimate of the effective tax rate for the annual consolidated financial statements.
